

Seminar Right Way to Represent Yourself

Two days seminar was held at Alpha Rehabilitation Centre

The topics of this seminar were:

1. Learning and improving CV writing skills
2. Get ready for work interview

The main aim of seminar was to introduce short, practical and effective program to the audience.

Writing CV. Covering Letter, doing Interview is an essential part of process of getting to the employment market and gives a possibility to represent themselves to potential employer in right and effective way.

The subjects were delivered by both theoretical and practical approaches.

The listeners were given a possibility do their practical work and discuss on the subject.

Their mistakes were analyzed and corrected.

By summarising the results and effectiveness of seminar we are able to make a statement that:

The planned targets were accomplished and main goals achieved.

We were delighted to observe the significant improvement in seminar participants' theoretical knowledge and practical skills, representing themselves to potential future employer.

The comments of participants were absolutely positive in regards of seminar.

We can state without any doubt that will make a positive impact in their future.

Faithfully Yours

Aleksas Dubinskas

Speaker

Aldus Ltd Director